Sixth Sunday of Easter
(May 22, 2022)

“It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities.” Acts 15:28

Jewish tradition was filled with ritual observances. Christian stewardship is not a call to a burdensome life of rules. It is a call to a life of freedom through the joyful sharing of one’s gifts from God.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, May 29 The Ascension of the Lord

- I Acts of the Apostles 1:1-11 (58C)
- II Ephesians 1:17-23
- III Luke 24:46-53

Vocation View: Those who love me will be true to my word. My Father will love them and we will come to them. How will I respond to that love? Am I being called to priesthood or religious life? (John 14:23-29)

Parish Directory Update:

A sigh of relief was given by parish leaders to review a second much improved draft released by our publisher recently. I believe that our leaders and I can work with this draft to make final corrections and move forward with approving the publishing of the final product. While we all wish to hold something in our hands, our parish leaders have invested such time in producing the directory, that I insisted that we receive a Directory to make us proud. I am grateful for your patience, and once we have a date to share with you for the release, we will notify you. Till then, I say again thanks to our Parish Leaders who edited this exciting addition to our parish history and vital resource for serving current and future generations at St. Rita.
Fr. Mike

Since 1955, the Archdiocese of Louisville has contributed millions of dollars to the Crusade for Children. This community-wide effort changes the lives of children with special needs, and many families in the Archdiocese have benefited directly from the Crusade as have our schools, which receive grants to assist students with diverse learning needs. Next weekend on May 28-29, our parish will collect donations for this year's Crusade. Those who wish to donate may bring contributions to Mass or to the parish office. If giving by check, Please make your check payable to the parish and put the word "Crusade" in the memo line. Thank you for your generosity.
